OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Rezitech provides high-quality industrial maintenance solutions and pump technology products to companies in Australia and Papua New Guinea. We deliver top-quality equipment and services to the industry, partnering with the finest manufacturers and service providers in the market.

Rezitech is committed to ensuring a safe and healthy workplace for its workers

- By preventing work related injuries and ill-health
- Eliminating hazards or reducing the risk of injury to people and the risk of damage to plant and equipment.
- By consulting and encouraging participation of workers, wherever possible.

To deliver this commitment, Rezitech shall comply with all applicable local statutory, regulatory and legal requirements, as well as any relevant International laws. The OHS system will be reviewed on an on-going basis.

Rezitech firmly believes that occupational illness, injuries, property damage, fire and other potential harm to the employees are prevented through effectively managing all potential risks.

We will achieve this by following relevant legislation and adopting a risk management strategy of:

- Identifying hazards in the workplace
- Assessing risks to workers and others
- Deciding on control measures
- Implementing these controls
- Monitoring that the controls are effective.
- Consulting with workers, wherever possible
- Encouraging participation from all employees of the organisation.

Rezitech is committed to providing adequate resources:

- A safe work environment
- Suitable and safe equipment
- Information, instruction, training and supervision to ensure competence and safety.

Rezitech promotes the participation of workers in the safety program and ensures that all employees are aware of their roles and responsibilities and are able to perform their duties in a healthy and safe manner. We will foster, promote and reward positive behaviour and encourage transparency in reporting, monitoring, measuring, and learning from safety performance, and take corrective action where necessary.

We are unreservedly committed to improving our business and ensuring a healthy and safe environment for everyone. The policy is made available to external parties on the Company website.
